VERS:

```
                    Cm7
My face been washed away
                     Bb        Gm7
Of the tears I cried today
Gm7                          Cm7
But all I need is for her to stay
                            Bb                      Gm7
Though I know that all her intentions might be good
         F              F
But if I catch her with another man
  F                  F
I wouldn’t stand the pain
```
