(Intro)
|F#m, Bm, A, C#,| F#m

(Verse)
      D
Empty stairs,
              E
In a worn-out house
                 C#
That's where she stays
                   F#m
Where she hides out

          D
Locked up safe
                  E
She explores her pain
           C#
Untill she leaves
               D
To explore the night
              Bm
Thats all she knows
                C#
It's a poisoned rose

(Chorus)
            F#m             Bm               A       C#
Its all she wants when she glides into the night
            F#m          Bm           A    C#
but all she needs is to open up her eyes
        F#m                  Bm              A      C#
and she knows it's there it echoes in her mind
            Bm                              C#
She will be found when her feet hits the ground
