        C            G  Am           F
1.       This is my life, this is my time
        Am           G         F     C    C
         show me the light and I go there.
        C            G    Am          F
         Give me the wine, bitter and sweet,
        Am                 G           F     C    C
         a little bit of bread, that's all I need.

        Am                    E7
Chor.    I don't want the gold from Xanadu
           F                       C            Am
         I think I leave it all to you, wow wow wow
                    G      F       C    C
         this is my life and I don't care.
        C           G     Am                 F
2.       This is my street, are you restless feet
        Am        G     F       C - C
         carry me on to anywhere
        C         G   Am        F
         Take the fear, take it away,
        Am                 G        F        C   C
         and leave me some hope for one more day.
 Chor.       Am               E7
          I saw a ghost behind the door
                  F                          C            Am
         when the kids coming home from the war, wow wow wow
                    G          F       C    C
         with broken dreams and nothing more.
        Am                 E7
         I heard a woman, singing her song
                   F                   C              Am
         and it was good, and warm and strong, wow wow wow
                    G      F          C   C
         She made me cry, I don't know why.
