Update:

Here's the Correct chords right before the "Ambition makes you look pretty ugly" part.
The 6th string is fretted with the thumb to allow for the Hendrix-like chord embellishments that Thom adds with his pinky.

Update, April 12, 2004:
During the live in Glastonbury show Ed plays the high pitched melody in the Chorus
("what's that") with a pitch shifter (I believe it is set one octave higher):

```
|-------12-------------12-----------|-------12-------------12-------|
|----15---15--------15----15--------|----15----15-------15----15----|
|-15-------------15-----------15----|-14-------------14----------14-|
|-----------------------------------|-------------------------------|
|-----------------------------------|-------------------------------|
|-----------------------------------|-------------------------------|

|-------12-------------12-----------|-------12-------------12-------|
|----15---15--------15----15--------|----15----15-------15----15----|
|-13-------------13-----------------|-13-------------13-------------|
|-----------------------------------|-------------------------------|
|-----------------------------------|-------------------------------|
```

Keep in mind, however, that this bit might have been played differently on the record.

This correction is based on the Glastonbury concert footage.
