All It Takes

Hanne Boel

Guitar akkorder

[Intro]
D

[Verse]
D                              G
Never knew life like this was possible
                 D
Most of all with you
D
I would give anything, anything
        G                                    D
Just to see you through and to be with you again

[Pre-Chorus]
      A           E
And I know, yes I know
     G                A
That life will find a way

[Chorus]
D                            F#
All it takes is one drop of love in your heart
    G                   A
And maybe we can start again
D                           F#
All it takes is one ray of hope in your life
    G                   A       D
And maybe we can do it right

[Verse]
D                              G
Imagine a time for us come together now
               D
For ever now through
D
'Cause I couldn't ask for more

Than a chance to see
  G
There is a chance to see
                       D
What could have been you

[Pre-Chorus]
      A           E
And I know, yes I know

     G                A
That love will find a way

[Chorus]
D                           F#
All it takes is one drop of love in your heart
    G                  A
And maybe we can start again
D                           F#
All it takes is one ray of hope in your life
    G                    A       D
And maybe we can make it right.  hey

[Solo]
D G D G E A
D F# G A
D F# G A

[Chorus]
D                           F#
All it takes is one drop of love in your heart
    G                  A
And maybe we can start again
D                           F#
All it takes is one ray of hope in your life
    G                  A       D
And maybe we can make it right
D                           F#                  G    A     D
All it takes is one ray of hope in your life

D
All you need is hope, hope in your live
D
you need is hope, hope in your live
D
All you need is hope, hope in your live
D
All you need is hope, hope in your live

D                           F#
All it takes is one drop of love in your heart
    G                  A
And maybe we can start again
D                           F#
All it takes is one ray of hope in your life
    G                  A       D
And maybe we can make it right

D                           F#
All it takes is one drop of love in your heart
    G                  A

And maybe we can start again
D F#
All it takes is one ray of hope in your life
G A D
And maybe we can make it right
